BROCKTON MAN INDICTED ON CHARGES
HE SHOT FIVE PEOPLE OUTSIDE A BROCKTON BAR

BROCKTON – A Brockton man has been indicted on charges in connection with the May shooting of five people at a Brockton bar, Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz announced today.

Stephen Cabral (DOB: 05/06/91) was indicted by a Plymouth County Grand Jury today on three counts of Aggravated Assault and Battery with a Dangerous Weapon, two counts of Assault and Battery with a Dangerous Weapon, and one count each of Unlawful Possession of a Firearm, Unlawful Possession of a Loaded Firearm, and Unlawful Discharge of a Firearm within 500 feet of a Building.

On May 24, Brockton Police responded to reports of 8 to 9 gunshots heard in the area of Dino's Bar at 1002 Main Street in Brockton. Upon arrival, Brockton Police located five victims with gunshot wounds being treated by emergency personnel. Several 9mm shell casings were recovered at the scene. Investigators interviewed several witnesses who reported seeing a man shoot into a crowd gathered outside the bar.

Detectives collected video footage from several video surveillance cameras with views of the bar. Police were able to identify Cabral as the alleged shooter in the surveillance and establish a timeline of his activities from the video footage. On June 14, a warrant issued and police arrested Cabral while driving in Taunton.

Cabral is scheduled to be arraigned at a later date in Brockton Superior Court.

The case is being prosecuted by Assistant District Attorney Keara Kelley and was investigated by Brockton Police.
